I am writing to inform all you fine souls of a get together that I will be reserving a room for tomorrow night. The webcast of Steve Jobs' keynote is scheduled to be released 6PM Mountain time, and I will be reserving a room for 9PM EST with the webcast to begin by 10. I think pizza and pop would be good, so if you are willing to chip in ($3-$5) for such things let me know in a quick reply. If you have other thoughts, let me know. I will send an email out tomorrow before noon with an official location reservation, and I will let everyone know by 4 if we'll be doing anything pizza-wise (so you'll know to have a light dinner). Any feedback is appreciated, and I look forward to seeing you all there for a great time!

Submitted for the approval of those who Think Differently,

Post Script:

The final constitutional was yesterday afternoon (Sunday) and the final wording of the constitution was decided upon. All that remains is for me to submit it to Sue Conto for the CUSA Senate, which I plan to do by friday morning at the latest (proofread and all). If there were any thoughts for the final constitution, let me know.

Cheers,
